Section 7.2 Indemnification.

(1) Definitions. The following definitions contained in the Hawaii Nonprofit Corporations Act (HRS 414D-159) apply to this Section 7.2:

(a) "Director" means an individual who is or was a director of the Corporation.

(b) "Expenses" includes counsel fees.

(c) "Official capacity" means with respect to a director, the office of director in the Corporation and with respect to an officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation who is not a director, the office in the Corporation held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the Corporation.

(d) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

(e) "Party" includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(f) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, or reasonable expenses actually incurred with respect to a proceeding.

The Corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation who is not a director under this section to the same extent as a director. An officer of the Corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 7.2(3) and is entitled to apply to the court for court-ordered indemnification under Section 7.2(5) to the same extent as a director.

(2) Authority to Indemnify in General. The Corporation may indemnify a former or current director made a party to a proceeding against liability if the individual (a) acted in good faith and (b) in a manner the individual reasonably believed in the case of conduct in an official capacity, that the conduct was in the Corporation's best interests and in all other cases, that the conduct did not oppose the Corporation's best interests, and (c) with respect to a criminal proceeding, that the individual had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

The Corporation may not indemnify a director's liability where such liability has been determined in a proceeding brought by the Corporation, where the Corporation had the right to bring the proceeding, or if the director is found to have received an improper personal benefit, except as otherwise allowed by law.

(3) Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a director seeking indemnification has been successful in the defense of a proceeding, the Corporation shall indemnify the director against reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

(4) Advancement of Expenses. Before a final decision is made in a proceeding, the Corporation may advance funds to pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses of a director, provided that (a) the director states in writing the director's good faith belief that the director has met the standard of conduct described in Section 7.2(2), (b) agrees in writing to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director did not meet the standard of conduct, and (c) the facts then known to those making the determination do not preclude indemnification. Such determinations and authorizations shall be made in the manner described in Section 7.2(6), below.

(5) Court-Ordered Indemnification. A director made a party to a proceeding may ask the court for indemnification. Upon receipt of the application, the court may order indemnification in an amount it considers proper if it determines (a) that the director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 414D-161 of the Hawaii Nonprofit Corporations Act, Hawaii Revised Statutes, (as summarized in Section 7.2(3)) or (b) the director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification under all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the director met the standard of conduct set forth in Section 7.2(2), above, or was found liable in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, or in connection with any other proceeding whether or not involving action in an official capacity, in which the director was found liable on the basis of the director's improper receipt of a personal benefit.

(6) Determination/Authorization of Indemnification. The Corporation shall make indemnification payments under Section 7.2(2) only if authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the director seeking indemnification has met the standard of conduct set forth in that section. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not at the time parties to the proceeding, or (b) if such quorum is not obtainable, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board (in which designation directors who are parties may participate) consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding, or (c) if a committee cannot be designated, by special legal counsel selected by the Board or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsections (a) or (b), or a majority vote of the full Board (in which selection directors who are parties may participate). Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if special legal counsel makes the determination, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made by those entitled under subsection (c) to select counsel.

(7) Other Right to Indemnification and Non-Exclusivity. This Section 7.2 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which those seeking indemnification are entitled under the law.

(8) Insurance. The Corporation may purchase insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation against liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in that capacity.

(9) Effectiveness. This Section 7.2 shall be effective with respect to those persons covered by this section and in respect to proceedings pending on or after the effective date of the articles of incorporation, as allowed by law.

Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
